KG-26

Greenville-Spartanburg Airport, Greer, S.C.
Showing Control Tower in center of view. "Crossroads of the jet age South". This ten million dollar development opened Oct. 15, 1962, and is centrally located on Interstate Highway 85. The modern Terminal houses Restaurant, Lounge, Drug Store. Bank Office and two Conference Rooms. Under normal conditions the 7,600 foot main runway can handle an arrival or departure every 45 seconds.

Color photo by Henry Elrod

NATURAL COLOR by Mike Roberts

Published by Asheville Post Card Co., Asheville, N. C.

C15803